IDF soldier makes special delivery from Tampa kids

On a recent trip home to Tampa, Jesse Davidson, a reservist in the Israel Defense Forces, stopped at Tampa Torah Academy to pick up Shana Tov cards for Israeli soldiers.

Davidson, known as a “lone soldier” because he has no family in Israel, came to the school just prior to being called back for another tour of duty that began in early October.

He took the cards to Israel and distributed them to IDF bases, sending the students photos of their cards being used to decorate sukkahs built for soldiers during the Sukkot holiday.

After graduating from USF with a degree in criminology, Davidson, 29, fulfilled a longtime dream and joined the IDF in 2017, serving as an active-duty soldier deployed in West Bank regions until 2020, when he became a reservist.

As a reservist, he split time between Israel and Tampa until the Hamas terror attacks on Oct. 7, 2023. Since then his unit has been called up more frequently.

Shana Tova messages from students at Tampa Torah Academy adorn the wall of a sukkah that IDF soldiers made at their base. “Lone soldier” Jesse Davidson of Tampa brought the holiday greetings to Israel.
